

Sugar Shine Strawberry

50% Corn. 50% Cane. 100% Sweet History

Thomas Jefferson “Jeff” Pottinger, the grandson of Captain Samuel Pottinger Sr., who established the first pioneer outpost in 1781 in nearby southern Nelson County, our T.J. Pottinger Sugar*Shine traces its roots back to 1781. While other sugar shines are often criticized for being tasteless, Emily Hutto of The Hooch Life says, “You’ll forget all that once you take a sip of this delicious spirit. It’s super sweet, but not overpowering.”
