

Clontarf 1014 Classic Blend

The Independent Irish

Clontarf 1014 Irish Whiskey is named after the famous Battle of Clontarf in 1014. It uses only the most premium ingredients: barley, maize and the purest Irish spring water. The blend is a combination of pot-stilled single malt whiskey (approximately 15%) and column pot stillled grain whiskey. Triple-distilled and filtered through Atlantic Oak charcoal to provide a pure, clean and distinctive taste. Aged for at least four years in charred oak bourbon casks. Smooth, approachable and mixable taste.

The Deciding Punch:

Ingredients:

- 1.5 cups Clontarf 1014 Irish Whiskey
- 8 cups apple cider
- 750 ml bottle of dry hard cider

- 36 oz Gosling's Ginger Beer
 - Juice of one lemon
 - Several dashes orange bitters
 - 1 orange sliced into rounds
 - 3 cinnamon sticks
 - 1 apple sliced thin

Method:

Combine the ciders, ginger beer, whiskey, lemon juice, and bitters in a large punch bowl or pitcher. Stir to combine. Top with orange slices and cinnamon sticks. Ladle into ice-filled punch glasses garnished with a slice of apple.

Tip: to keep the punch cool without diluting with too much melted ice, freeze water in a small bowl to use as one large ice boulder in the punch.
